learned, the board of supervisors will not call the flood control elecwill be around the first of June before the board is ready to call the bond election. Affairs will not be ready by May 18, as had been reported.

At their meeting Saturday afternoon, members of the board of supervisors discussed every angle of the water program. They discussed the possibility of placing two propositions on the ballot. One of these would be for a $2,-500,000 bond issue to furnish Orange county's share of the cost of the $15,000,000 water program. The other would be to vote an additional $1,000,000 for conservation work, including improvement of the Santa Ana river channel and construction of spreading grounds to sink water into the underground basin.

$2,500,000 is ample to pay all Orange county's share of the cost and leave from $300,000 to $400,

Onetime Lowly Athletics Tied for First Spot; 'Diz' Dean Cops 5th

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer

Anything can happen now—probably will. Figure it out for yourself from these dizzy develop-ments of the week-end:

The Philadelphia Athletics, 100 to 1 shots, are tied for first place in the American league; the Yankees, world champions, are in the second division.

The Cincinnati Reds, who pr viously hadn't been hitting their collective weight and are in the National league cellar, stretched their winning streak to four straight with the heaviest batting and scoring attack in the big time this season.

For the first time in a quarter century, there's a pitcher with 20 straight victories—Carl Hubbell.

In winning his first five pitching starts of the season, Dizzy Dean has compiled the incredible earned run average of 0.40 per nine inning

Willis Hudlin, the Cleveland right hander who didn't win a game in 1936 until the next to the last day of the season, pitched a four-hitter for victory his first time out this year.

Most astonishing in these daffy goings are Connie Mack's once-Nightball league laurels against Westminster's rejuvenated club.
Fifteen hundred tickets have been fourth victory in five starts on their western swing yesterday by their western swing yesterday by coming from behind with a nine-run surge in the last three frames to top the Tigers, 9-8. by teeing off against the Phillies for 24 hits and a 21-10 win, biggest offensive of the big league season. And leading the parade was Kampouris with three homers and eight runs batted in.

Hubbell equalled the 25-year-old performance of Rube Marquard by pitching the Giants to a 4-1 win over the Cubs for his fourth victory of the year and 20th straight in league competition — a streak that dates back to last July 17. Flames Destroy 44-Stall Barn; Triple Action Is Shot After Burns

BALTIMORE. (A) - Pimlico officials went ahead today with preparations for the Preakness, eastern racing classic, despite a fire that destroyed a 44-stall barn and fatally burned sixteen thoroughbreds.

Matt L. Daiger, secretary and general manager of the track, said there was plenty of room to quarter the horses coming here for the 47th preakness, to be run Saturday. The damage was not sufficient to hinder the meeting now in progress.

PARKING METER VOTE PROPOSED

SURVEY ARE COMPILED

Variety of Opinions Is Shown; Opposition Still Heavy

The parking meter situation still was up in the air today, as far as the city council is concerned. But merchants of the city -at least two-thirds of themstill are dead set against them. One merchant even demanded an election on the issue before putting in the meters.

As compilation of the comments made by merchants in the wide survey conducted by the retail division of the chamber of com-merce continued today, interesting views of merchants on the problem came to light, some for the plan statement: "Not at this location."

Pre-Nuptial Shower Is Given

The Hillcrest drive home of Miss Anita Shepardson of Fullerton was the scene of a lovely post-nuptial courtesy extended Wednesday evening to the former Miss Evelyn Rollins, who on April 14 became Mrs. Robert Dozier at a quiet ceremony in Las Vegas. Hostesses were the Misses Doris McMurtry and Helen Davis of Costa Mesa and Ellen Collins of

On arriving Mrs. Dozier was met at the door and presented with a shoulder corsage of gar-denias and Talisman roses. Later a telegram was delivered, supposedly from the Los Vegas hotel, to the effect that some of her bags had been left and were being sent. These, when delivered were found to contain miscellaneous gifts from her friends.

Bridal theme games followed opening of the gifts with the Misses Madeline Sherwood, Ruth

Bananas To You--If You Must Diet

By CLAUD CHRISMAN, M. D.

Of all suggested diets the best though not particularly popular due to lack of publicity and exploitation is the "milk and banana" diet. It is harmless, there Dear Miss Stoddard: I have never seen a question answered by you such as I wish to ask, but won't you answer me quickly?

I visited a polymeter and in read.

Various fakes. Read them carefully and conscientiously and if you don't get the silly premonition out of your head shortly, I give and will produce results.

There are two methods of using the milk-and-banana diet. strict diet allows six large ripe bananas a day and four glasses of skimmed milk. Fast becoming one of the most widely observed customs in the LITTLE MARY MIXUE world, Mother's day brought candy, flowers, telegrams and assorted gifts to millions of mothers yesterday. To the "Mother of Mother's Day," however, it brought little more than disgust. She is Miss Anna Jarvis, the Philadelphia spinster who founded the observance of Mother's Day in 1907.

Observing the anniversary of her mother's death on May 9th, Miss Jarvis was struck with the idea of popularizing a day set aside for all mothers, living and dead. Leading a movement in these channels, she succeeded in having Congress pass a resolution on May 10, 1913, commending the observance of the second Sunday of May as Mother's Day by government departments.
Now she looks upon Mother's Day as a "racket," being vigorously opposed to what she regards as the commercialization of the memorial day.

Miss Jarvis is said to have been arrested for disorderly conduct at a meeting of the War Mothers association in 1925 in which she protested their adoption of the white carnation as an emblem. Several bitter legal fights have been waged in her attempts to win sole rights to the use of the name "Mother's Day" on the grounds that she has

On the Outside Looking In

SANTA ANA'S traffic problem and the various efforts to do something intelligent about it have had the city stirred up for a long time. Now the county is heard from. The following article headed "Squeeze 'Em Through" appeared last week in 15 Orange county weekly newspapers in the Weekly Watchtower column:

Residents in the country districts of Orange county, especially in the north end, have been wondering what has become of the projected plan to cut a street through the west part of Santa Ana to allow through traffic to by-pass toward the beaches and south end of the county without having to fight its way through the city streets. The answer seems to be that the idea will die abornin', the same as the original plan to continue Santa Ana boulevard down the Pacific Electric tracks and take through traffic on the state highway out of the press of local traffic on North Main street.

The drive put on by the city of Santa Ana to make everyone drive 25 miles an hour or less inside the city limits has had its repercussions in the city as well as in the country. Many drivers who have never had accidents and who understand all the principles of safe driving declare that is only a secondary factor, and have shown considerable resentment over the ac tivities of the county seat city officials.

The query often put is, "What sense is there in Santa Ana insisting on all the through traffic going down its main street, and then further clogging it up with a lot of slow drivers who dare not go any faster for fear they will be caught breaking a rule? Do they want to force us to drive through the busiest part of town so they can catch and fine us?" The view of many is that if Santa Ana wants to be rid of the hazards in her main street the proper method is to promote the construc-tion of through roads which will permit through traffic to go around. Under present conditions there is no question but what the county town is losing even more popularity because of its provincial viewpoint about traffic. It has yet to learn that motorists forced into congested traffic in order to get through a town do not benefit the business of that town.

Another item in this Santa Ana traffic proposition as it concerns the rest of the county is the situation around the court-house and business section of the town. While bearing down hard on drivers who get above the 15-mile or 25-mile speed limit, the city officials appear to have accomplished nothing in the enforcement of parking laws. People who come from the outside to transact business at the courthouse or at any business house usually are forced to park away out and do a lot of walking. This would not be a cause for criticism if the cars which occupy all the parking spaces were those of other customers on similar business bent. But the sorry fact is that much of the space around the county building is taken up by county officials and employes whose cars remain there for half a day at a stretch. Along the business streets the same condition prevails with reference to cars belonging to proprietors

The situation has been further aggravated around the courthouse by the arbitrary shutting off of the driveway and parking space in front of the courthouse annex. An attempt was ing space in front of the courthouse annex. An attempt was made to prevent parking in the driveway, but these cars were mostly of persons delivering supplies to the annex or engaged in a short errand. Some were inconsiderate, and took up too much room, and on account of these few the Santa Ana supervisors suddenly decided to shut it all off. So shut off she be, and the public can go hand.

It's been a month now since the city council named a special traffic commission to do the job.

So far, little or nothing has been released to the public press concerning the activities of the commission. Possibly it has worked out a method of solving the speeding and parking difficulties which so irritate our neigh-

If so, the public no doubt would be glad to hear about it and pass on it.

If not, we suggest that the above article from the 15 county weekly newspapers gives the new commission something serious to think about and calls for prompt action before out-of-town shoppers and visitors decide the Santa Ana situation is hopeless.

A radio speaker defines a conservative as one who thinks a thing should never be done for the first time and a radical as one who thinks nothing should ever be done except for the first time.

We Learn Late About Resources

NOW THAT the Olson bill providing for competitive bidding on the people's huge oil pool of Huntington Beach has passed, it reminds us how negligent California has been in claiming any share of the underground riches for the commonwealth.

It's a late beginning, but it is better than never. A bill is now said to be under way in Sacramento for a similar handling of the enormously rich oil deposits believed to lie off Wilmington. Minnesota, through the initiative of an early and forgotten legislator, has been taking in millions a year in state royalties from its rich iron deposits on the Mesaba range. They have financed the state's schools and university. California has been milked of millions of dollars in oil from publicly owned lands with almost no returns.

It is not far-fetched to foresee that the state's share of royalties from Huntington Beach may yet yield a substantial part of the cost of state government. Apparently we have been rather slow in emerging from the pioneer stage in which no price was too high to pay for private enterprise and investment.

An agricultural department bulletin says: "There are fewer rats in the United States than formerly." Sounds as if J. Edgar Hoover wrote it.

For Lack of One Vote

HUMANITY, sanity and decency are progressing, slow-ly it is true, at Sacramento. A bill to abolish capital punishment fails in the assembly this time by only one vote.

In some future session it will carry; eventually California will do away with its death penalty which does not deter crime, and which, in fact, never is invoked against any slayer with money.

It's hard to keep the coronation on page one with with such things as Glenn L. Martin's visit and the Hindenburg explosion.

EVERYDAY MOVIES

In the manner of Arnold Benlishment where I just spent the night, the bedroom all black with white drapes, the bath towel racks heated. Dandy idea that on a cold morning. Also a bath chair with rubber covering. And a fresh bar of soap with the guest's mono-

Our cook fashions a floating island for dessert that is a velvety ambrosia a little short of heavenly. Aside from the Algonquin I know of no public restaurant featuring this dish. Yet I have never known a man or woman who did not enjoy it immensely when well

We were gabbing at breakfast about what was the matter with the world. M. recalled an old cow-boy saying that made me thoughtful. He was asked by one of a flock of city visitors over-running the place what he desired most in life. He replied: "To be let alone—and plenty of it."

Charlie Driscoll, fulfilling a midwest lecture engagement, is stop-ping off in Gallipolis for a few hours. It will be a great experience to see the town through his eyes. He has the keenest capacity for detail of anyone I know. In a few hours he will see more than many in weeks.

My method of flattery must be obvious and awkward. When I want to have my own way about something that may disturb the household—such as taking on a couple of extra dogs—I indulge a bit of what grandma called "honey fuggling." I was spreading the oil as a prelude to a request when M. archly inquired: "Why all these red apples for teacher?" Over toppled the entire cart.

"Shorty" Harrison ran interference long enough this morning —just such matters to meet and take before the proper authorities. A frightful commentary in "the richest county" in the richest state of the nation. The sticky fingered ones look upon government and tax monies as jam-pot articles, going back to the pantry pillaging days of childhood. It is an amazing cross-cut in human nature as exampled in those, trusted in public social and administrative jobs of both county and state!
